INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the QHarmonix - Frequency Therapy course, a program to awaken the deepest and most profound healing on the planet.

This is just the beginning. Here you stand at the threshold and forefront of medicine. We are only just beginning to understand the opportunities that Royal Riffe, the father of frequency medicine, stumbled upon and celebrated only to be shut down moments later. His research lost into the void of manipulation and deceit.

Now we are awakening this therapy and taking it to its inevitable place in the world of wellness. It has the potential to be the most powerful healing methodology the world has ever seen.

Here in the Frequency Therapy course you will discover the healing power of resonance through research, channelled information and trials.

Frequency Medicine

Albert Einstein is attributed to saying that “Medicine of the future will be frequency medicine”

Here you stand on the at the threshold of a new and exciting era. The era where everything changes! Where we unlock the secrets of the frequency universe and become the Master Creators we were always destined to become.

QHarmonix is at the forefront of the resonance frequency age. Cutting to the core of the workings of a universe vibrating with life force that stabilises itself into physical form.

Here, in this program, you will learn how to move and bend the fabric of life itself. How to influence the atomic level of existence to make profound changes at a physical level. These changes influence in the most gentle and subtle way so as to maintain the balance of the universe.

A truly holistic approach to healing that works with the very fiber of the physical form. Influencing the subatomic level into the heart of the human genome and DNA itself.

This is cutting edge science and as such you are at the very beginning of the awakening of true therapy. Thank you and welcome...

Program Overview

The program is divided into six modules run over 12 weeks. These modules take you through the process of understanding the human Biofield, how frequency interacts with it and how we stabilise using the medicine of QHarmonics and resonance.

Along the way you will learn the difference between, energy, vibration, frequency, and resonance. You will learn the physics and science of harmonics and how it moves the universe into creation.

You will learn the technology of resonance and the cutting edge science that is being done to continue the journey to unpack its power to heal.

You will learn how to create and recommend frequency recipes through the production of Harmonic Resonant Frequency tracks for you and your clients. Learning how to refine the therapy to combat and counter specific illness and afflictions. You will learn the frequency matrix body map and how to construct a remedy to heal and transform.

Most importantly you will have access to the most powerful Frequency Therapy Program in the world 'Qharmonix' that will enable you to construct specific frequency recipes that heal and stabilise. You will also have a range of products that you can sell to your clients to help them to apply the prescriptions and make full use of the medicine you prescribe.

It's time that together we uncover and further develop this amazingly powerful resource for humanity now and into the future. Our research and application will pave the way for the medicine of the future to be made real now!

Frequency Application Software

The most exciting opportunity exists to create bespoke and specific frequency recipes for our clients. This program makes it easy to not only identify the fundamental frequency but to also apply harmonics, octaves and chords to help heal in the most profound way possible.

At one point we had to manually find and create the frequencies for our clients. This was a long and arduous process that created frustrations and complications.

Now, with our custom built computer program software, we can assess our clients (using Consciousness Technology) quickly and easily. We can locate and find the fundamental frequency specifically for their issue or problem. Then easily calculate the harmonics or octaves or chords required and at the click of a button have the program provide a download ready prescription that we can send directly to our clients all within minutes.

This makes the creation process fun, fast and effective! All the hard work and heavy lifting is done for you so you can support more people, more accurately and quicker than ever before.

This program makes the job of being a Frequency Therapist super efficient and super accurate getting your clients better results faster.

Frequency Application Products

Here we have a wonderful opportunity to provide products that assist our clients to apply the prescribed resonant frequency therapy in the most effective way possible.

These products have been developed and hand picked to provide the most beneficial outcomes with the least interference or unforeseen negative side effects.

Products that allow you to apply the resonate frequency direct into the vibrational nature of the subatomic make up of the human form. Products that can be used while asleep or while doing activities such as exercise, sports or in busy work environments without disturbing others or having them even know what is being applied.

These products also allow you, as the practitioner, to receive additional income as you apply the powerful effects of resonant frequency therapy.

We are dedicated to helping you and your clients get the best outcomes possible and are researching, designing and developing new and exciting products. naturally these products will evolve over time so that you can keep up to date with advancements and technological discoveries that science makes along the way.
